Could you please forward the following memo to the University Senate? Thanks

To: Members of the University Senate
From: Martie Reineke, member, Search Committee for the Vice President for Educational & Student Services

In the next several weeks, the search committee will be finalizing phone interview and campus interview questions for the VP for Ed. and Student Services position. Having been nominated by the Senate to serve on this committee, I want to make every effort to represent your concerns throughout the search process. If you or the constituents you represent have any topics, issues, or concerns that you wish addressed in the interview process, please do feel free to contact me at martha.reineke@uni.edu. Also, if you know of any strong candidates for the position, please do initiate a nomination or encourage them to apply. An abbreviated job description follows below. The full text may be found at <http://www.uni.edu/hrs/employ/admin/>.

Position announcement:

The Vice President for Educational & Student Services is the university's senior officer with primary responsibility for building university community and for providing leadership to a comprehensive program of quality services to students. Advocating for the interest of students, the Vice President will promote and enhance the values of a "student-centered" university. The Vice President reports to the University President and is a member of the University Cabinet; collaborates with the other four divisions of the University: Academic Affairs, Administration & Finance, External Relations, Marketing & Advancement; directs the Leadership Studies program; and assists with policy decisions regarding management of the University.

Units reporting directly to the Vice President include Academic Advising Services, Office of Admissions, the Center for Multicultural Education, Financial Aid, Maucker Union & Student Activities, Placement & Career Services, the Registrar, University Health Services and Residence. The division has a current budget of $38,555,026. and includes approximately 120 professional staff and 225 merit staff.

Qualifications: Extensive experience in the delivery of student services programs; demonstrated expertise in a least one student services area; ability to work effectively with diverse internal and external constituencies; a strong strategic planning focus; a demonstrated commitment to diversity; evidence of management and organizational skills with the ability to coordinate programs and activities; strong interpersonal and communication skills; familiarity with the goals and purposes of higher education and the key issues facing public, comprehensive universities; ability to work collaboratively throughout the university community; an earned doctorate required, with a minimum of seven years of progressively more responsible management experience in higher education administration.

Salary: Commensurate with experience.

Applications received by March 5, 1999, will be given full consideration.
